ON THE ROAD To The Title

Round 21 review

Eastern Suburbs v Sutherland Sharks

This is the big one at the bottom of the table. A Sutherland win would see Eastern Suburbs having to win at the Central Coast in their last match, while a win for the Wanderers would make it very hard for the Sharks.

There shouldn't be much in this one on Saturday night at Seymour Shaw, and Super Soccer is going for a draw.

Ryde City v Bonnyrigg White Eagles

Ryde City upset Canterbury Marrickville's finals chances last week, and will look to put a spanner in the works for Bonnyrigg's Minor Premiership hopes.

Bonnyrigg will be delighted to come through their test at Lambert Park last week, and will not be taking Ryde lightly.

Super Soccer believes the expected away win will come, although maybe in a slightly lower score-line than some may think.

Bankstown City Lions v Leichhardt Tigers

This is the tough game to call. A win for the Demons here means it will be nearly impossible for the Tigers to make the top five, while a win for the Tigers will mean Bankstown face a tough last game. Both teams were impressive in their last outings, despite the Tigers losing, and any team that can win so comfortably at Blacktown like Bankstown did will need to be watched.

Despite the Lions inconsistent form, we are going for a Bankstown win by virtue of playing at home.

Fairfield Bulls v Blacktown City Demons

Fairfield will be stunned at their defeat at the Central Coast, but will also remember their 2-0 win at the Gabbie Stadium earlier in the season.

Blacktown were poor against the Lions last week but a team as good as this won't be as bad two weeks running. It should be a physical battle between the Blacktown defence and the free-scoring Fairfield attack.

Super Soccer thinks Blacktown might just bounce back and snatch this one - anything less and they could find themselves dropping into second.

Parramatta Eagles v Central Coast

Parramatta defeated the Central Coast 2-0 just two weeks ago in a re-arranged match, and on home soil at Melita Stadium will expect to do the same. The Coasties are coming off their fine win over Fairfield, and although they need to pick up something here knowing that Eastern Suburbs will have played Sutherland the night before, Super Soccer believes that the home team will prevail once again.

Canterbury Marrickville v Macarthur Rams

Anything less than a win here for the Canterbury Marrickville side and their season is over, so there is plenty at stake for them. They could have chosen easier opponents than the Rams as well, but Super Soccer believes if the home team play like they can, they can cause an upset here.

Round 20 review

Blacktown City Demons 1 Bankstown City Lions 2

Mark Fowler was at the Gabbie stadium

Bankstown went to Blacktown on a beautiful Sunday afternoon, and came away with a fully deserved three points in a performance which saw them chase and harry every ball.

In contrast, apart for the last ten minutes, Blacktown looked a shadow of the team that still sits at the top of the Super League table, albeit now with just a one point lead over Bonnyrigg.

Bankstown looked menacing up front all day, and two real standouts were the two goalscorers, Stewart Van Bentum, and especially Sasho Dimovski.

The Lions started the better of the two teams, and had the first real effort on goal after five minutes, when caretaker coach Mile Todorovski shot straight at Fernando Greco in the Demons goal.

On ten minutes Damien Brown, who had a good tussle with Tony Josevski on the flank, put a good ball through for Steve Riches, but the big number three was unable to bring the ball down quick enough.

On 21 minutes came the first goal, and it was no more than the Lions deserved. A ball was put across the defence, and Van Bentum sweeped the ball home from about 15 metres out.

Three minutes after Jon Angelucci placed a shot narrowly wide for Blacktown, but in the 28th minute Aaron Holst was penalised for a handball, and then booked by referee Con Diomis for disputing the decision. Even worse came when Dimovski stepped up to smack the ball home from a good 25 metres out with a stunning free-kick.

Blacktown started to pick up after the shock of being two goals down, and Riches smashed a shot into the side netting that looked to have gone in for the Demons fans sitting in the main stand.

The second half started with the Demons still trying to get a grip of the game, but the Lions out-played them in midfield, something that has rarely happened this year to the home side. Having said that, Blacktown came so close once again when Angelucci got in a superb header from a Riches free kick, but again it flashed just wide.

On 67 minutes the Lions should have sealed it, when they broke clear and had four attackers against just two defenders. They fluffed it though, and after Angelucci went close with another header, Richard Luksic wrapped a long leg around the ball to prevent Steve Berry from getting a shot on target.

Blacktown scored with just two minutes remaining, Angelucci showing good skill before firing a shot that looked on target, but took a deflection of a defender anyway and went into the net.

Deep into injury time, and with the Demons at last playing with the passion that had been missing for the previous 80 minutes, Jason Bennett fired a shot from close range that looked to be going in, only to smack a defender full in the face and end up in the hands of Zlatko Josevski. It summed up their day.

Central Coast Coasties 1
Fairfield Bulls 0

Fairfield Bulls visited Pluim Park last Saturday night in need of three points to maintain their semi-final position...but met a Central Coast side even more desperate for the points.

At the bottom of the table at the start of play, things looked to be going to form when Fairfield started the game the stronger. Darren Iocca carried on his recent good form, twice being denied by Gary Meier in the Coasties goal, before swinging a free kick over that Matthew Borg could only head over the bar.

The Coasties first real chance saw Nathan Byrn make a 20 metre run before firing just wide, while at the back for the Coasties Dave Maltby and Brent Demery stuck tightly to Borg and Mark Hoenselaars. On the rare occasion that duo were beaten, Meier in goals was another player to continue his excellent recent form.

The second half started similar to the first, with the Bulls on top, and newcomer Martin Batalla saw his curling shot brilliantly saved by Meier.

From that moment on the Coasties suddenly looked a different side, with Clint Smith, Stuart Sontag, Peter Preston and Byrn all coming close. Smith came even closer midway through the second half, seeing his shot somehow kicked off the line by the impressive George Zabetakis.

Byrn fired over when faced with Dragon Pupovac minutes after, before the Coasties pressure really built up as Preston skimmed the crossbar after being set up by Byrn.

The Bulls were also pushing forward, but on the night nothing was going to get past Meier. With just five minutes remaining captain Peter Preston launched a shot from the edge of the penalty area, and the ball flew past Pupovac for the Coasties skipper's fifth, and most important, of the season.

JASON BENNETT (no 10) gets above Bankstown's ZLATKO JOZEVSKI

Preston was replaced two minutes after to huge applause from the large crowd, which was repeated when the two teams left the field at the end of the game. Their surprise loss means the Bulls face two difficult games to try and pick up points, although with their impressive record against the top teams in Super League that may be a blessing in disguise.

It was the Coasties night though, as from looking dead and buried just last week, this magnificent win puts pressure on both Sutherland and Eastern Suburbs to pick up points. A word on the crowd too, with the Coasties players and officials commentating on the vocal support which helped cheer their team to victory.

Sutherland Sharks 0
Parramatta Eagles 1

Peter Smith was at Seymour Shaw Field

The Parramatta Eagles snatched all three points against an unlucky Sutherland side at Seymour Shaw on Sunday afternoon. In an even game Sutherland just about shaded possession, without ever being able to create that telling goalscoring chance.

The first effort of note in the game came when Cord Tolson ghosted in at the near post but his glancing header hit the post, after 18 minutes. Eight minutes later Parramatta had their best chance of the half, Anthony Mittiga shooting wide from just 12 metres out.

As the half came to a close each side had one more chance, Jason Holmes saving superbly from another Tolson header, and Mittiga for the Eagles curling a free kick just wide.

The second half started to open up, and on the hour mark Malcolm Bideau bundled both the ball and Holmes over the line, referee Alex Spiroski correctly awarding a free kick, then with nineteen minutes remaining John Kelso set up Adam Anderson, who volleyed over when he had more time than he thought.

With just four minutes to go though Mittiga knocked in only his second of the season, when youngster George Wakim put him through. Mittiga ran onto the ball, before shooting past third choice goalkeeper Daniel Farias, to give the Eagles a valuable three points as they moved into fourth, while the Sharks face Eastern Suburbs in Round 21 knowing they need something from the game.

Parramatta's ANTHONY MITTIGA - Vital Goal against Sutherland

Leichhardt Tigers 3
Bonnyrigg White Eagles 4

Stuart Veitch was at Lambert Park

Supporters of both teams were left in no doubt that this was a game the two teams had to win, as the players battled for every ball and each contest was keenly fought.

With Blacktown losing, an 80th minute header by substitute Joe Bruni settled this game, although the Leichhardt Tigers deserve great credit after being blitzed in the first half to come back from 3-1 down.

The game started well, and Ray Younis slammed the ball home after just seven minutes to give the White Eagles the lead. Three minutes later though it was 1-1, as Eric Hristodoulou scored direct from a 25 metre free kick. Bonnyrigg were the more threatening team, as Paul Dee and Mark Racker caused havoc by getting behind the Tigers defence on the flanks, and in midfield Paul Richardson and Javier Mancino denied the Tigers both room and possession.

Their increasing dominance saw them score twice more before half time, firstly Borislava Dragas heading home a free kick on the half hour mark, then Richardson surprising Frank Mikuletic with a quickly taken free kick on the stroke of half time.

With a 3-1 lead most people present would have thought Bonnyrigg would go on and win convincingly, but it was the Tigers who never gave up. With Steve Karavatakis and John Buonavoglia seeing more of the ball, Karavatakis panicked Bonnyrigg goalkeeper Mladen Kos into picking up a back-pass, and Sarkis Boudaher fired home the indirect free-kick.

On 63 minutes came a goal of real class, and it quite fittingly involved two players of real class. Buonavoglia backheeled the ball into the path of Karavatakis, and he superbly rounded Kos. A feint then left two defenders for dead, as he fired the ball into the roof of the net to make it 3-3.

Bonnyrigg came back though, not in any mood for a draw, and Mancino hit the up-right before Robert Gomez was denied a penalty appeal. But Bruni's late goal sealed the win for Bonnyrigg, in a game which saw both coaches pleased with their respective team's effort, losing coach Arno Bertogna praising his teams commitment and attitude.

Ryde City 1 Canterbury Marrickville 0

Ryde City put a huge dent in Canterbury Marrickville's top five chances after securing all three points courtesy of a Jason Lal goal with just 16 minutes remaining.

The three points do little for Ryde on the table - they will come 9th no matter what happens in their last two games, but for their visitors even a point would have seen them go into their last two games with a real chance.

As it is Canterbury Marrickville are still only three points adrift of fifth spot, but with a number of teams in with a shout the Berries are looking for results to go their way.

It looks like 37 points will be needed to get into the top five, which leaves Canterbury Marrickville with an easy equation - win their last two games.

Macarthur Rams 2 Eastern Suburbs 1

Macarthur held on to their third spot on the Super League ladder after a victory over Eastern Suburbs. The Wanderers went back to the bottom of the table after the Central Coast's victory over Fairfield Bulls, but in fact it was then that took the lead after jut 26 minutes.

Mark Beldham finished a move that saw him score his fourth of the season, although the 1-0 scoreline had much to do ten minutes earlier to Con Anastasiadis, the Eastern Suburbs goalkeeper denying Rams striker Jimmy Aschner in a one on one situation.

Eastern Suburbs looked to be going ino the break ahead, but right on the stroke of half time a ball played in by David Reid was knocked back across to Aschner by Eric Williams, and Aschner made sure from close range.

Ten minutes after the re-start it was 2-1 to the Rams, as Trevor Whiddett set up Williams, who superbly headed home from 15 metres out.

The Rams looked to add to their lead to make the game safe, but while both teams had a number of chances neither side could add to their tallies, leaving the Rams looking settled and ready for the finals. Eastern Suburbs face Sutherland Sharks and Central Coast in the next two games, so their fate rests in their own hands.

Last week's Super Soccer unexpectedly hit the newsagents a day late, with the need to check Monday's Youth League results and also production problems causing the delay. Super Soccer apologies for any inconvenience caused, and thanks those who took the trouble to ring in on Thursday.

JOEYS

FACE TOUGH TASK AS NSW INSTITUTE BOYS ARE AGAIN TO THE FORE

Australia's Under 17 team, the Joeys, face one of the hardest draws imaginable if they can get past Bahrain in the world championship qualifier.

Their 'prize' if they do win will be to go into group C of the championships - drawn alongside Brazil, Germany and Mali.

The championships run from November 10 to 27, but first the Joeys will have to get past their qualifying match, the home leg of which is expected to be played in Canberra on August 14.

That the match is 'expected' to be played then is a story in itself, as Bahrain were unable to field a team for the scheduled dates as some of their players were sitting exams.

The Joeys romped through the qualifying tournament in Fiji in grand style, defeating the hosts 5-0 in the final.

New South Wales Institute of Sport Head Coach, and Joeys Assistant Coach Kelly Cross said, "We played so well throughout the tournament, and all the guys were geared up to play Bahrain after coming back from Fiji. We were well prepared for the game and then FIFA go and call the game off."

On show in the Joey's team that won so impressively in the final were five players from the Institute team, and one of those, Mark Byrnes, captained the side.

The five players, Shane Lockhart, Byrnes, Shane Cansdell-Sherriff, Dylan MacAllister and Jess Van Stratton played a prominent role in the game, with both Cansdell-Sherriff and MacAllister grabbing goals. A sixth member of the Institute team, Anthony Doumanis, was also selected for the squad, giving the NSW a sizeable representation in the national team.

The Institute team themselves, who play in the National Youth League, proved why those six players deserved to be included after a great season. Despite the loss of Byrnes towards the end of the season with the Under 20 squad that played in Nigeria, Cross' team finished sixth, their highest ever placing.

Yet another player to gain recognition from the team was striker Simon Catanzaro, who as reported in Super Soccer picked up the National North Youth League player of the year award.

The 18 year old striker, who has been signed by the Northern Spirit on an apprenticeship, was the Institute captain and received special praise from Cross.

"When Simon came here he had some work to do, but he lost some weight and also gained pace after our specialist training."

That specialist training should prove invaluable for the latest batch of youngsters (listed below), who have just been selected as the new intake for the New South Wales Institute of Sport team.

Byrnes, Lockhart and MacAllister are there again, and the newcomers will be keen to follow the examples set by them, Van Stratton, Doumanis, Cansdell-Sherriff and Catanzaro, as this amazing program continues to hone the skills of some of the countries finest players.

1999 SEASON
NSW FIRST DIVISION REVIEW

ROUND SIXTEEN SUMMARY

TOP FOUR TEAMS ALL WIN AWAY FROM HOME A C UNITED TAKE A TUMBLE AT HURSTVILLE CITY

Dulwich Hill seem to have real problems these days, having gone to such lengths to regain their Division One status last season. They only showed rare glimpses of what they were capable of in Saturday's 4-1 home loss to Manly-Warringah Dolphins, the visitors probably letting them off lightly by not going in for the kill when they had their opponents at their mercy.

Dean Harding was allowed to stroll through in the 8th minute and from well inside the area tuck a low shot past the despairing reach of Peter Trajcevski, who could get but a hand on the ball.

When Harding's corner from the left, twenty minutes later, was not fully cleared the ball fell to his striking partner Damian Rosenthal who stabbed the ball home for a two-goal lead.

Only six more minutes had elapsed when Harding's corner from the right provided big midfielderDanny Barbalace with a free header at the far post and he doesn't miss many of those, so it was 3-0 and the Dolphins were by that stage running away with the game.

Matthew Bastian's long range shot was turned away by the overworked keeper in the 39th but the only man causing any real problems for Manly was Canberra Cosmos star Ivo de Jesus, who was forced to work almost alone up front and had few opportunities to take shots at goal.

In the 51st Harding was impeded by Dulwich defender Sal Saladino, who was later to be dismissed for a second caution, with the resultant penalty taken by Harding and well telegraphed to the keeper with a tame shot to his right.

Harding then put Rosenthal through on goal in the 60th only for the player to lift the ball over the bar from right in front.

Meanwhile, in a rare burst of energy, Dulwich began to put something more into their game and Ivo de Jesus was able to pull a goal back. The ball was played in his path by Phil Cacciola and after the first effort had bounced off the chest of the keeper it fell again to de Jesus who made no mistake the second time around.

Manly was not finished, however, Harding using his head to stay on-side and slipping a nice pass for Rosenthal to tap in past a keeper who had been drawn out from his goal to thwart Harding.

Alan Hunter almost made it five with an overhead kick in the 81st following a corner, but this time the keeper was able to tip the ball over the bar.

It was another understated performance by the leaders who appear to be back on song after some lapses during May.

Rockdale slumped to their second defeat in a row when Auburn paid a visit to the Soccer Centre on Sunday. The local Suns were without playmaker and brains of the side, Spase Najdoski, injured the previous week at Stanmore, but from the 4th minute when Auburn keeper Haydar Arslan dived at the feet of the marauding Goce Trposki it was not going to be their day.

The winning goal came in only the 13th minute with Huseyin Bayhan breaking quickly and beating the keeper with his shot only for Andrew McHardy to clear the ball away off the line, but in the path of the on-rushing Taner Omac who was able to finish from close range.

Alvaro Folladosa made a few incursions into the Auburn half and after firing wide in the 9th minute also laid on a pass for Trposki in the 16th that the 18 year old got onto but could only send via a defender's deflection wide for a corner.

Arslan did well to tip a header from John Manalopoulos over the bar in the 28th after a corner from Steve Cklamovski and in the same period both Trposki and Manalopoulos were again denied by the keeper.

Meanwhile Deniz Keselik had a shot pushed around the post by Mark Afif in the 41st.

Auburn looked set to go two up in the 67th when Keselik put Bayhan through on goal but a recovery operation managed to block the shot and then in the 76th Navid Varess had a header for Auburn, from Can Celik's free kick, that just went wide.

Time ran out for Rockdale as Auburn controlled the game well enough to repeat their success at Mona Park earlier in the season when they were 5-1 winners and while the score was a lot closer the win was still very satisfying for the visitors.

The win allows St George to cling to some outside hope of catching leaders Manly should they falter in the run home, but they are well in the hunt for a finals' berth.

Bathurst found St George in a pretty determined frame of mind at Alex Lamberton Field on Saturday.

After snow during the week the skies cleared sufficiently to let the sun shine through and the visitors began the better of the two sides who were both attempting to make amends for losses the previous weekend.

St George lost Player-coach Paul Carter in only the 18th minute after attempting a shot following a powerful run forward from deep and he elected to bring on striker Stefan Janic in his place at the back.

Leo Carle made a fine run down the right for the Saints in the 66th minute and crossed into a crowded penalty area where the players attempted to gain control and where Tim Preston was best to react and slot the ball past Matthew Baillie.

Bathurst then came back strongly with Scott Mutton looking certain to score three minutes later after a solo run and his delay in shooting allowed a defender to get back in time to clear the ball off the line.

Carle was again the provider in the 83rd with another fabulous run down the right which ended with a crisp cross that was met in tradesman-like manner by ace poacher Janic to have his side two up.

Mutton eventually got his name on the scoresheet in the 88th when his header that struck the underside of the bar, following a Mark Rooke corner was deemed to have crossed the line by referee Kevin Humphreys who was well placed to rule on the goal.

The win allows St George to cling to some outside hope of catching leaders Manly should they falter in the run home, but they are well in the hunt for a finals' berth.

Penrith is one of two teams that stand in the way of the Saints gaining at least second place and the Panthers again showed their resolve by going to the South Coast and bringing back three points.

In a tough and very good contest the Panthers were worthy winners 2-1 and it was a fine, all-round team effort by the travelling band of players from the foot of the mountains.

It was in stark contrast to the match a week earlier when the side had surrendered meekly to Auburn on their own ground at Andrews Road in the heart of Penrith.

Penrith took the lead midway through the first half when Richard Astone took advantage of a Garth Tehliwec break down the left and his subsequent cross to place a header past the outstretched figure of Illawarra keeper Robert Raguz.

That lead was extended 8 minutes into the second half when Tehliwec got the slightest of touches onto a free kick despatched by Bob Casserly.

With the clock ticking away Illawarra made a late charge and pulled a goal back through Valentin Sobevski in the 89th minute, but it proved to be too little, too late.

Among the Penrith players to be praised by the team management were Steve Sweeney, Alan Picken, Kaan Davies, Jon Hawkins and Astone, but special mention was made of goalie Luke Martin who is certain to keep Mike Gibson out of the first team with this kind of consistent showings, on this occasion again showing excellent form.

Moorebank played well against Stanmore Hawks at Hammondville Park, but missing Geoff Gunning and also having a few other players out went down 2-0, despite enjoying more than a fair share of the game.

Eddie Briscoe put away a penalty for the visitors in the 18th minute but then proceeded to miss another in the second half.

The game hung in the balance until the dying stages when Peter Kypreos was able to finish off a good move in the 83rd minute after a few passes had been strung together. Both sides will prove hard to toss in their remaining outings on this showing.

At Hurstville Oval the Hurstville City Minotaurs bounced back from their 0-6 loss at Manly to defeat A C United 4-3, coming from 1-3 down to achieve the win.

Tom Pontidas opened the scoring for the home side after only two minutes but then A C got on top with Chad Gibson scoring twice inside five minutes, with Fabio Screpis notching his side's second in between. The flurry of goals that began at the 31minute mark did not rattle the Minotaurs who came back with another Pontidas goal two minutes before the break to go to the sheds only one behind.

Then, a matter of two minutes after the restart, Peter Joannou levelled for the home side and the same player grabbed the winner in the 78th for a sensational 4-3 win.

The result left the Hurstville side poised to claim fifth spot should they maintain the form at the weekend, but that is problematical and much depends on the influence Pontidas can bring to the game and the application by the defence on a weekly basis.

Oval A C United meets Dulwich Hill the side they defeated with a late winner in the first round, since which time they have augmented their team and until last week looked likely to press for some honours. Dulwich Hill gained a reprieve when Moorebank lost last weekend, but still look a long way from being a side that is likely to trouble many others at any stage. They must be right on their game to defeat A C, though a point would do their confidence good and that is our tip here.

Moorebank on the other hand have been playing well and apart from the loss to Stanmore have looked well capable of beating anyone on their day. At Mona Park they may well come away with three points

Sunday has many intriguing contests, Stanmore's hosting of Bathurst standing out at Arlington Recreation Ground as a game that is hard to pick.

Stanmore are playing soundly right now, but with Bathurst you know they will need to be at their best for the full 90 minutes and a draw is a possibility.

Penrith meets Rockdale at Andrews Road and with the premiership itself out of reach the finals series is their next objective and one they should go a long way to achieving with a win here. The return of Spase Najdoski to the Rockdale ranks would help the visitors, but that may be another week off yet.

Manly takes on a revamped Illawarra Lions at Cromer Park, with another strong home win the likely outcome, while challengers St George has a tricky one in the visit of Hurstville City Minotaurs who were the first team to beat them this year and are capable of almost anything on their day.

ROUND FIFTEEN SUMMARY

TWO TOP SHOTS FROM EDDY BOSNAR SINK UNIVERSITY AT HURSTVILLEAND FRASER PARK GO DOWN AT ARNCLIFFE

In the crucial third-versus-fourth tussle at Hurstville Oval the home side Hurstville ZSC managed a clear-cut 2-1 win over previously third-placed Sydney University to exchange places with that side.

Right from the 'off' it was clear that Hurstville were on their game and Steve Zoric rattled the bar with an effort which had come after a corner had been won inside the first minute.

In the 8th minute the students conceded a free kick, in what had looked a harmless position, but Northern Spirit's player on loan to Hurstville, Eddy Bosnar, had other ideas and buried his shot in the top left corner, brilliantly, from 35 yards out.

In the 18th minute Zoric won a chase against a defender, to accept a through pass, reading the bounce best only for Matt Craw to come off his line and force the Hurstville player to hook his shot wide.

Not much of any consequence was created by the Uni boys in the first half and it was not a great deal livelier in the second for them either.

Hurstville's stand in keeper Steve Vuljanic was not really tested until Uni substitute Luke Madigan made an incisive run in the 65th minute and drove the ball across the face of goal before a trio of attacking players could capitalise, the ball completely eluding striker Luke McDougall.

In the 78th Bosnar struck again with a free kick, this time from the left hand edge of the area, which the tall defender drove just inside of the upright and along the ground, with both speed and precision.

Craw was kept busy denying Stipe Milicevic from getting in a header, which the keeper managed to push away in the 80th minute and at the other end, in the 83rd, Buljanic saved from the probing David Gill, pushing away the shot for a corner.

The students did get on the scoresheet, however, when Simon Philips sent in a speculative long range effort that sailed into the roof of the Hurstville net in stoppage time.

Greystanes beat Hills United on Saturday 3-1,Gary Comerford netting the first from the penalty spot in the 31st minute. in contentious circumstances. Comerford added a second on the hour only for Francois Finianos to pull one back in the 78th via a deflection, but a third for Greystanes by Andrew Cauchi settled it for good in the 83rd.

A sunny day at David Phillips, saw the second from bottom UNSW side playtop four contenders Mt Druitt.

UNSW, fresh from the thrashing handed out to them by Sydney Uni six days earlier, were looking forward to proving that they are a side capable of turning out results.

The home side began as strongly as they have in previous matches, and it took less than five minutes for them to go one up. In the fourth minute, crisp passing through the midfield, found 'birthday boy' Nick Kodomichalos with ample space on the right flank. He cut into the 18 yard box and as everyone prepared themselves for the cross, he let rip with a low drive on target. The visitors' goalkeeper could only manage a hand on the shot which looked good from the second it left the boot.

It was about the thirty minute mark, that Uni punished the visitors. A strong challenge from John Dumoch found The Wales in possession within the Mt Druitt third and when Dumoch found Mark Emmerson that player was able to slot the ball past an advancing keeper.

The visitors seemed to be getting the edge, as the game wound down, but Uni defended well and should have put the game beyond doubt several times. In the end, UNSW hung on for only their second win this year, and Mt Druitt will rue a game that on paper should have been theirs.

Fraser Park came unstuck at Arncliffe's Scots Field, where the home side showed great determination to win 1-0 and it could have been worse had a shot not been cleared off the line at one stage. Shots were, in fact, cleared off the line at both ends, but Arncliffe keeper Bernie Sheary was in sparkling touch against the side he played with last season, making many fine saves to deny Ante Zizic in particular whose free kicks might have done more damage on another day.

In the first period Fraser looked like scoring several times but the defence held firm, Matthew Zec hitting the bar and Sasha Talevski having a shot hacked away to safety from the line by Eddie Tomasic.

Ali Jaffa hit the post for Arncliffe in the first minute of the second half.

After Zizic had seen his free kick tipped onto and then over the bar in the 56th the goal that settled the issue arrived, in a move begun by the agile veteran Zlatko Nastevski.

Nastevski sent a low free kick towards the box, where Steve Josevski laid it back for Robert Todorovski to steer past Angelo Rodic in the 61st.

Five minutes later it needed an acrobatic save from Sheary to prevent Zizic putting Fraser level with a well struck free kick. A Jeff Suzor volley was tipped over in the 82nd and a Zec header blocked on the line in the same period, but a glaring miss by Talevski in the last minute after a ball nodded on by Zec from along throw by Morson typified Fraser's day and all the credit on this occasion belonged to Arncliffe and especially their young keeper, Sheary.

Hajduk Wanderers capitalised on Fraser's misfortune by collecting maximum points from Sydney District at Camdenville Oval, but it needed an 85th minute penalty to seal the game.

J J Ellul actually had the ball in the back of the net in the 6th minute but that effort was ruled out, after a linesman's report, for some pushing inside the box, which the referee had not spotted.

Ellul was also out of luck in the 30th when District keeper Leo Espinosa saved his superb shot brilliantly. In the dying stages, with District defending doggedly and well, the Hajduk side finally showed themselves to be too toey when substitute Trent Worrall, just back from a leg fracture, was brought down in the 6 yard area and calmly put away the resultant penalty himself for the 1-0 win.

Mount Pritchard beat Belmore 2-1 at Cook Park, a flurry of second half goals producing all the excitement late in the game for the home crowd. Greg Baldock broke the deadlock in the 69th minute but Russell Hall equalised for the visitors ten minutes later only for John Cosentino to nab the winner in the 85th to keep the Mounties in a secure mid table spot, while Belmore in losing their 10th game of the season are just 7 points off the bottom.

Round 20 review

G13's

Blacktown extended their lead to a massive 18 points after Round 20, a 7-1 win over the second-placed Wollongong Wolves indicating the extent of their superiority.

Newcastle took the chance to go above Wollongong on goal difference after a 3-1 win over Eastern Suburbs, and the Breakers also have two games in hand.

Sydney Olympic went above the Gladesville Hornsby Association after their 4-0 win over Manly, as the Association side went down 3-1 at the Macarthur Rams.

Likewise, the Leichhardt Tigers went above the Parramatta Eagles and into sixth after a 3-0 win at the Southern Districts, the Eagles being held to a 0-0 draw against Sydney United.

Mid-table teams the Sutherland Sharks and Marconi Fairfield both picked up useful away wins, the Sharks 2-0 against Southern Branch and Marconi Fairfield 3-1 at the Central Coast.

Sydney Olympic moved into second on goal difference after their re-arranged game with Parramatta Eagles on Sunday, winning 3-1.

There were fewer changes in the G14 competition, with Sydney Olympic staying two points clear after crushing Manly Warringah 10-0. Sydney United in second also won, 2-0 at the Parramatta Eagles, as did the Gladesville Hornsby Association in third, 3-2 at the Macarthur Rams.

The Blacktown City Demons went above the Wollongong Wolves into fourth after defeating their opponents 3-0, the Wolves dropping to sixth, and in fifth the Southern Districts lost 2-0 at Leichhardt.

Newcastle sits in eighth and defeated Eastern Suburbs 2-1, while Marconi Fairfield defeated the Central Coast 3-0 and the Southern Branch defeated the Sutherland Sharks 2-0.

Olympic went five points clear on Sunday as they played Parramatta Eagles, and won 1-0 at Potts Park to extend their lead.

G15's

The top five stayed the same in the G15 competition, leaders Blacktown maintaining their three point lead after defeating the Wollongong Wolves 3-0. They lead from the Gladesville Hornsby Association, who won 3-0 at the Macarthur Rams, then its Marconi Fairfield, 3-0 winners at the Central Coast.

Southern Districts remain in fourth despite their 2-1 defeat by the Leichhardt Tigers, while Sutherland stay fifth after beating the Southern Branch 4-0.

Wollongong's loss saw them drop from sixth to eighth, as Sydney United moved into sixth after beating the Parramatta Eagles 3-0, while Newcastle moved into seventh after a 4-0 win over Eastern Suburbs.

Sydney Olympic remains mid-table after their latest win, 2-0 over the Manly Warringah Dolphins. On Sunday Sydney Olympic and the Parramatta Eagles fought out a 1-1 draw.

G16's

Its tight at the top, but the Leichhardt Tigers stay a point clear of Sydney Olympic after winning 2-0 at the Southern Districts. Olympic themselves though had a good win, 6-0 over Manly Warringah.

Newcastle in third defeated Eastern Suburbs 5-1, but fourth placed Blacktown went down 2-0 at home to the team one place behind them, Wollongong.

In sixth the Sydney United moved into Parramatta's spot, after beating the Eagles 2-0 at the Melita Stadium, with Marconi Fairfield nudging the Eagles down another spot after their 1-0 win at the Central Coast.

The Gladesville Hornsby Association are next after their 2-0 win at the Macarthur Rams, followed by the Sutherland Sharks who won 3-1 over the Southern Branch.

There were two 0-0 draws on Sunday, Sydney Olympic and Parramatta Eagles, and the Southern Branch and the Gladesville Hornsby Association both being unable to score.

Round 17 review

G13's

The top five remained the same after Saturday's games, with the Illawara Lions maintaining their five-point lead at the top with a 4-0 win at the Canterbury Association.

In second the Bankstown Association also won, 3-0 at home to Ryde City, while AC United in third had it much tougher, before edging out Canterbury Marrickville 4-3.

The Blacktown Association are in fourth, despite their 2-0 loss to the Stanmore Hawks, and St George remains fifth despite also losing, 1-0 at the Rockdale City Suns.

Hills United are in sixth after a 4-0 win over the Fairfield Bulls, and then comes the Bonnyrigg White Eagles, 3-1 winners at Penrith.

Sunday saw a re-arranged game between St George and Illawara take place, and the Lions moved eight points clear at the top after a 1-0 win.

G14's

Leaders Ryde City maintained their seven-point lead at the top of the table after defeating the Bankstown Association 3-0 at Neville Reserve. AC United remains second as they won by the same score-line against Canterbury Marrickville, but Bonnyrigg in third went down 3-1 at the Penrith Panthers.

St George in fourth therefore closed the gap after their 1-0 away win at the Rockdale City Suns, as did Penrith in fifth. Next is the Canterbury Association, who defeated the Illawara Lions 2-1, followed by Hills United, who won 3-0 against the Fairfield Bulls.

The day's other game saw the Stanmore Hawks and Blacktown Association draw 0-0 at Pratten Park.

Onto Sunday, and a re-arranged match between St George and the Illawara Lions was played, and St George stayed in fourth but closed the gap on the leaders with a 1-0 win.

G15's

While leaders AC United march on, their latest victory being 4-1 over Canterbury Marrickville, the teams who are now at least eleven points behind them continue to drop points.

The Bankstown Association was in second, but in losing 3-0 at home to Ryde dropped to fifth. In second now are the Bonnyrigg White Eagles, who defeated the Penrith Panthers 3-2 away from home. Hills United are in third after a 3-0 win over the Fairfield Bulls, while Ryde City are now in fourth.

The Illawara Lions moved above Penrith and into sixth after a 2-1 win over the Canterbury Association, and next is the Blacktown Association who won 6-0 at the Stanmore Hawks.

Bottom club Rockdale went down once more, losing 4-0 at home to St George.

There were two re-arranged games on the Sunday, the Rockdale City Suns beating the Fairfield Bulls 2-1, and the Illawara lions beat St George by the same score.

G16's

From being a tight division just weeks ago, the Bankstown Association have now opened a seven point lead at the top after their 4-0 win over second placed Ryde City. The Stanmore Hawks moved into third with a 3-2 win over the Blacktown Association, who dropped into fourth, while in fifth the Illawara Lions also lost, 2-1 at the Canterbury Association.

With the Canterbury Marrickville and AC United G16 clashed washed out, AC sit in sixth, followed by Penrith, who won 2-1 against the Bonnyrigg White Eagles.

Next come Hills United who won 2-0 against Fairfield, while the Rockdale City Suns defeated St George by the same score-line.

Illawara jumped into third following their 4-2 victory over St George on Sunday, while the Rockdale City Suns edged out the Fairfield Bulls 1-0.

Round 14 review

G13's

There were very few changes after Saturday's Round 14 matches, as leaders the Nepean Association extended their lead to a handy five points after a 3-1 win over Mt Pritchard. The Ku-ring-gai Association remains second but lost ground after a 1-0 defeat by Hawkesbury City, so Macquarie Sports moved closer after their 3-1 win at the Granville Association.

Mt Pritchard remains fourth despite its loss to the leaders, then its Hajduk Wanderers, who drew 1-1 at Moorebank Sports.

Mt Druitt are in sixth as they defeated bottom club Parramatta City 5-0, and the Camden Tigers 3-0 win over CSI Schofields sees them remain in seventh.

G14's

The top three stayed the same after Round 14 games, with Macquarie Sports maintaining their three-point lead at the top after a 3-0 win at the Granville Association. Mt Pritchard is second after beating third-placed the Nepean Association 2-1 and CSI Schofields moved above the Granville Association after a 2-1 win at the Camden Tigers.

The Ku-ring-gai Association are in sixth after a 2-1 win at Hawkesbury City, then its Hajduk Wanderers after their 4-1 win at Moorebank Sports.

The days other game saw the lowly Mt Druitt and Parramatta City battle it out and the match ended in a 0-0 draw.

There was a re-arranged game played on Sunday as well , as Parramatta City fought out a 1-1 draw with CSI Schofields.

G15's

There was another win for leaders Hajduk Wanderers, who defeated Moorebank Sports 4-0 to keep up their seven point lead at the top.

Parramatta City are second, and their 4-1 win over Parramatta City will see them go into Sunday's re-arranged clash with CSI Schofields looking to bring Hajduk's lead down to four points.

The Ku-ring-gai Association just edged out the struggling Hawkesbury City,

1-0, and Mt Pritchard in fourth defeated the Nepean Association 4-2.

The Granville Association had a good 0-0 draw with mid-table Macquarie Sports, while the Camden Tigers went above their opponents CSI Schofields after a 2-0 win.

On Sunday Parramatta city moved within four points of the leaders Hajduk Wanderers, after defeating CSI Schofields 3-2 at the Eric Primrose Reserve.

G16's

The Nepean Association were held to a 0-0 draw against Mt Pritchard, a result which saw their lead cut to three points, as the Camden Tigers in second defeated CSI Schofields 4-1.

Hajduk Wanderers moved into third after their 6-0 win at Moorebank Sports, as Mt Druitt slipped back to fourth after their 0-0 draw with Parramatta City. The Ku-ring-gai Association moved well clear of the bottom three after their 2-1 defeat of Hawkesbury City, and the was the same score-line at Garside Park, as the Granville Association just edged out Macquarie Sports.

On Sunday Parramatta City and CSI Schofields had a 1-1 draw, a rare point for the away club in the G16's this season.

Round 16 review

G11's

The top five remain the same in the G11 competition after Round 16 action, but with the top two teams playing each other something had to give.

Macquarie Sports went into the game ahead of the Illawara Lions on goal difference, but extended that to a three point lead after a 2-1 win at Northlakes Oval.

Penrith in third defeating the bottom side Mt Druitt 6-0, and AC United in fourth also had a comfortable away win, 5-0 at Hurstville City.

Hills United in fifth defeated Mt Pritchard 1-0, and Hawkesbury City moved into sixth after a 4-0 win at Moorebank Sports. Stanmore dropped a place into seventh after their 0-0 draw at Hajduk Wanderers.

G12's

The Stanmore Hawks made it a twelve-point lead at the top of the table after defeating Hajduk Wanderers 4-1 away from home. AC United though were the big movers, going from fifth to second courtesy of a 1-0 win against Hurstville.

Illawara were in second but came unstuck against Macquarie Sports, going down 2-1, while Penrith also dropped a place after drawing 0-0 against Mt Druitt. Hills United dropped two places after they also drew, 2-2 at Mt Pritchard, while here was also a draw, 1-1 this time, between Moorebank Sports and Hawkesbury City.
